

Colgate University
Senior Thesis Permission Agreement

By signing the form below, I grant Colgate University the non-exclusive perpetual right to make available my submission ("the Work") over the Internet and/or make it part of the university's digital archive for scholarship (if applicable), currently Digital Commons @ Colgate, or its successor technology. I further grant to Colgate University the right to transfer the Work to any format or medium now known or later developed for preservation and access in accordance with this agreement. Nothing in this agreement with Colgate University affects or changes the Work's copyright status (see university policy on intellectual property for further information). Only materials made part of the university's digital archive will be preserved in perpetuity in order to sustain the scholarly record.

I warrant that:

1. the Work is my original work and does not, to the best of my knowledge, infringe or violate any rights of others nor does the deposit violate any applicable laws.
2. I have the authority and/or have obtained all necessary rights to permit Colgate University to use, duplicate and distribute the Work and that any third-party owned content is clearly identified and acknowledged within the Work.
3. I release the university from any liability whatsoever in connection with its use of the Work (and my name).
4. I hereby authorize and consent to the release, maintenance and display of my name, status as a student at Colgate, and any other personal information I have provided in connection with the Work itself and any associated information.

I specifically acknowledge that the Work may constitute an educational record under FERPA (20 U.S.C. § 1232g) and expressly consent to the use of the Work as described under this Agreement (see the Registrar's policy on FERPA for further information).

By granting this non-exclusive license, I acknowledge that I have read and agreed to the terms of this agreement and all related Colgate University policies.
